

The Blades of St Angelo

The Papal Guard is a fanatical bunch at the best of times. But those known darkly as the Blades St. Angelo are a special breed. A band of fanatical madmen commanded by the Konstaffler Uli Weiss. When not causing indiscriminate bloodshed they are used by the Papacy to resolve tasks others might consider distasteful. Among the ranks of his fighters number the Papal headsman Gregor Entz a fanatical sadist easily whipped into a frenzy by fiery rhetoric capable of chopping enemies into bloody chunks with his axe. Uli Weiss also never goes into a fight without his "gift" what he claims to be a fragment of the true cross gifted to him by the Pope himself. Many claim it's just a splinter from a dung cart. But none dare say that within earshot of him or any of his men.

RELIC BEARER

This model can never have Virtue of its own. This card may roll rally actions for Capos within its' command range with 6 dice.

If any enemy model moves into base to base contact with this model, they may immediately remove it from the table.

"Bear these fingers of St. Peter before among us my son! Let it steel our spirits and strengthen our sword arms! May it's light be a guide unto us in the dark and a blinding brilliance unto our foes!"

Blades of St Angelo

The fanatically high faith of Uli's men gives them great speed and flexibility in manouvre and combat. The reliquary should provide a steady stream of Rally actions to increase the fanatic's faith and keep your virtue reserves high as well as allow you to use Uli in combat. You should also be able to use that supply to burn virtue to reroll wound saves as well. As the warband lacks armour and armour piercing capabilities.
