Aguirre's Conquistadores

Led by the merciless marksman de Aguirre, his Conquistadores are a band of cunning and ruthless veterans of the new world conquests. skilled in ambushes and crippling volleys. Their experience makes them hard to shift, slippery to catch and full of surprises.

Hidden

Ask your opportent to turn around and place up to 5 Cards of models on the table outside of either deployment zone. Take a photo then remove these models. Do not deploy them.
Your models count as hidden in these locations. If an enemy model moves within 6" then they are revealed. You must immediately put them on the table, per the photo.
Otherwise at the start of Round 4 they are placed on the table as in the photo.

Change the result of an opponent's die roll by 1, up or down

Spain's Golden Century required its warriors to be adaptive, ruthless, and just a bit luckier than usual.

Aguirre's Conquistadores

With two groups of veterans they are able to split up and out manoeuvre the enemy, avoiding the enemy's most dangerous troops and pursuing the objective. The ambush card can be used to put Aguirre and the gunners into a position to pop and unleash a volley
